Dear Mr.:

Congratulations on passing NETA's Personal Trainer Certification exam! Your score was 82, and a score of 70 is required to pass. Your Personal Trainer certification is good for two years from your testing date. If you provided NETA proof of CPR certification your NETA certificate is enclosed. If you did not provide proof of CPR at the time of the examination, you will need to fax or mail a copy of the card to NETA before the certificate can be issued.

In an effort to help you continue your fitness education, we offer a variety of continuing education workshops and home study courses covering a variety of health and fitness subjects. For more information on these courses please visit www.neta.org or call us at 800-237-6262.
